Mr. Editor: In reading the different minds of people in the very interesting and sometimes amusing articles in Letters to the Editor, I would like to add a contribution. First, I wish to state that I do not think that the drys have their back to the wall, as has been stated by yet their back to the wall, as has been stated by a wet, by some considerable distance, if the following figures are reliable, but one may have quite a "rough time," as has been stated, to find a 100 per cent. American who will deliberately defy the mancity of his country's laws.
I ask how can prohibition have a "square deal," if the judges in some states do not convict violators found. with the goods in hand, or in their "bootleg" and where the Volstead act is held up to ridicule by some, yes, many? Picture houses make a ject of it, and many man are trained. Picture houses make a ject of it, and many men are trying to overthrow it and feel like quoting Holy Scripture to the, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." But in the fact of all opposition think what prohibition has accomplished, and think how much work accomplished, and think how much more it could do if all the officials would do make bold to ask, are the chief viola-tors? Not good American citzens, but a large group who profit in illegal traf-fic. We all know that there is an ele-ment to deal with that has no interest in, and no respect whatever, for the American Constitution. They alone, are the ones that want repeal or modification of one of the very best laws ever made of one of the very best laws ever for the uplifting of humanity. A recent Chicago Post says that it does not come from the wives or mothers of America, or from the men engaged in America, or from the men engaged in the army that army the America, or from the men engaged in production and commerce, or public service. It does not come from the army of men and women engaged in law infringements, hospitals, homes for the indigent, or agencies for the relief of human suffering, caused mostly by that greatest of all evils, "strong drink." There may be some in these groups who favor the repeal, but all those who are doing useful work, who are the very life of progressi rejoices in the death of this evil, even though its spirit hovers

You Wouldn't Knowingly Take Poison

Yet headaches, dizzy spells, indigestion and insomnia are usually only Nature's warning that you're constantly absorbing into your system poisons that should be eliminated by liver, kidneys, and bowels.

In SANALT the Sensible Tonic, you have a simple, harmless way of ridding yourself of these poisons, cleansing, and purifying your blood, stimulating secretive and excretive organs to normal action and regaining your "pep" and the joy and bloom of health.

In the more than 100 years that have passed since an old New England doctor originated the formula for this simple rebuilding tonic, SANALT has helped thousands of people just as it has helped Mrs. Carl Adams, of 456 Main St., Gardner, Mass. Here is her letter:

"I had been suffering terribly from nervousness for more than eight months. It was caused by bad condition of my stomach, which came so gradually that almost before I realized it I was suffering from intense headaches and spells of dizziness that were simply terrible. My kidneys and liver were both badly affected and I suffered may from backache. I have not yet finished my first bottle of Sanalt, but it has wonderfully improved my condition. The nervousness has almost gone, my stomach has been greatly helped, kidneys and liver are acting much better, and already I am convinced that Sanalt is true to name as 'Sanalt the Sensible Tonic.' I purchased Sanalt through the recommendation of Druggist Leathe, of Gardner, who said that if I was not satisfied with results he would return my money."

SANALT is safe for anyone to take. Contains no opiates, narcotics, or other harmful drugs. Like all the other famous Winsol remedies it can be bought at any drug store, for Winsol preparations are one line of trade-marked proprietary medicines sold by both Winsol Agents and non-agent druggists. No need to accept substitutes. If your druggist doesn't carry SANALT he can get it for you through his jobber.

> NEUROPATHIC DROPS, the great emergency medicine, and CERIZANE BALSAM, for coughs, are two Winsel remedies that should be kept in every home. Ask your druggist about them,
